About

Felice Garcia is a Los Angeles-based specialty act known for performing as Carrie Underwood. In Las Vegas, she appeared as Carrie in the American Superstars production at The Stratosphere Casino Hotel and Tower, where she originated the tribute for the show and performed more than 400 shows in the role.

Her stage background also includes Las Vegas and Reno productions such as principal singer of Les Folies Bergere at the Tropicana Hotel and Casino at the end of its nearly 50-year run, plus featured appearances in Fantasy at the Luxor and iCandy Burlesque at Planet Hollywood. She earned her Actor's Equity card after being cast as the only female in the Tony Award-winning Broadway musical Million Dollar Quartet as Dyanne, Elvis Presley's love interest, and performed 800 shows at Harrah's Hotel and Casino before moving to Southern California to record an EP with Pacific Records.

Felice has toured nationally and also performed at sea for international audiences as Christina Aguilera and Lady Gaga. Among her career credits, she is most proud of three tours to the Middle East entertaining the United States Air Force.

She has also performed and emceed for clients including Nintendo, Rotary International, Caesars Entertainment, Grass Valley, NASCAR, Top Rank Boxing, MGM, and NAMM.
