About

Founded in 2021, Take Me To Church is a Dallas, Texas-based 6-piece Eric Church tribute act built for private events, corporate events, and live music venues.

For events, the production includes wireless mixing, high-end line array speakers, wireless microphones, in-ear monitors, and stage wash lighting. The band carries a $1,000,000 liability insurance policy and uses XR-18 and X32 Behringer stage mixes for quick, easy access to front of house mixes and sound engineering.
