Bee Gees Gold

Relive the Fever

About

A live band and distinct vocal portrayals shape the Las Vegas production Bee Gees Gold. John Acosta, Daryl Borges, and Jeff Celentano appear as Barry, Robin, and Maurice, recreating the group's look as well as its harmonies. The program moves from early songs such as Massachusetts to the disco period, including Night Fever and Tragedy. It offers a concert arc across the '60s and '70s, with the familiar falsetto at its center.

Short bio

John Acosta's Bee Gees Gold tribute recreates the Bee Gees' look and sound from the 1960s through the late 1970s, backed by a live band. Featuring detailed vocal stylings and signature falsettos, the show includes early hits and disco classics.

Full press bio

John Acosta's Bee Gees Gold tribute recreates the look and sound of the Bee Gees from the 1960s through the late 1970s. Acosta performs as Barry Gibb, joined by Daryl Borges as Robin and Jeff Celentano as Maurice. Backed by a live band, the tribute features the brothers' signature falsettos and detailed vocal stylings, from early hits such as Massachusetts and I Started a Joke to disco classics including Stayin' Alive and You Should Be Dancing. Acosta has performed in Bee Gees tributes all over the world, bringing the Gibb brothers' music live once again.
