Jumping Jack Flash

THE Tribute to the Rolling Stones!

About

The stage changes with the era in Jumping Jack Flash. Video projection and multiple wardrobe changes help this Los Angeles act trace the Rolling Stones through a concert-theater format. Character work and witty banter accompany songs including Satisfaction, Sympathy for the Devil, and Beast of Burden. The presentation pays attention to instrumentation as well as appearance, joining a broad songbook to the visual details of a Stones concert.

Short bio

Jumping Jack Flash is a theatrical Rolling Stones tribute presenting song selections from across the band's 50-year career, with witty stage banter, video projection, wardrobe changes, and detailed musical re-creations.

Full press bio

Jumping Jack Flash delivers a theatrical re-creation of a Rolling Stones concert, presenting hit song selections from across the band's 50-year career. The show combines witty stage banter, on-stage video projection, multiple wardrobe changes, and careful attention to song performances, instrumentation, and visual details. Built to evoke the young Rolling Stones and their swinging-'60s era while covering the band's full career, it offers buyers a clearly produced concert-theater presentation rather than a standard tribute set.
