Felice Garcia as Miranda Lambert

About

Felice Garcia is a singer with extensive stage experience in Las Vegas and Los Angeles. She is best known for her role in the Tony Award-winning musical Million Dollar Quartet, where she performed more than 800 shows at Harrah's Hotel & Casino on the Las Vegas Strip. Before that, she was the principal singer in Les Folies Bergere at the Tropicana, described in the source material as the longest-running show on the Las Vegas Strip.

While based in Las Vegas, Felice also headlined in American Superstars at the Stratosphere, where she was especially known for her tribute to Carrie Underwood. Her additional stage credits from that period include Fantasy at the Luxor, iCandy Burlesque at Planet Hollywood, and Limelight at the Plaza.

She also produced and starred in her own show, Country Diva: The Show, at the Riverside Resort in Laughlin, Nevada. The production salutes country artists including Patsy Cline, Tammy Wynette, Dolly Parton, Miranda Lambert, and more, while blending in her own heart and comedy. The source material notes that the show is available for booking nation-wide.

In 2015, Felice relocated to Los Angeles, where she recorded an EP of original music with Pacific Records. She also performed as a supporting act for Green Day and The Chainsmokers.

Outside of her stage work, Felice volunteers with Musicians On Call, bringing music to patients, families, and caregivers in healthcare settings. She has also completed three tours of the Middle East performing for the United States Air Force.
