Rumours

Reliving Fleetwood Mac's Golden Era

About

The study of interviews and live footage informs the visual detail of Rumours. The Los Angeles production focuses on Fleetwood Mac in the ’75–’79 period, paying attention to stage behavior as well as the music. Rooney collaborators Taylor Locke and Ned Brower helped create the act. The repertoire includes Gold Dust Woman, The Chain, Songbird, and Rhiannon, with room for the variations of a live performance.

Short bio

The Rumours Tribute Show recreates Fleetwood Mac from 1975–1979, with classic album arrangements, studied sonic and visual accuracy, and performances that stretch beyond the records as the original band did.

Full press bio

The Rumours Tribute Show recreates Fleetwood Mac from 1975–1979, focusing on classic album arrangements and the band’s changing live performances. The show was developed through study of books, interviews, and live clips in pursuit of sonic and visual accuracy. Members are age appropriate and fully committed to the concept, with details throughout the performance reflecting the original band’s presentation. The result brings Fleetwood Mac in their prime back to the stage through a serious musical approach and a good-time spirit.
